ORDER

I. RESTRICTIONS ON REQUESTING OR RECEIVING ADVANCE FEES FOR DEBT RELIEF SERVICES

IT IS ORDERED that Defendants, Defendants’ officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, are permanently restrained and enjoined from requesting or receiving payment of any fee or consideration for any debt relief service until and unless either:

- A. Defendant has made a Face-to-Face Sales Presentation to the consumer; or
- B. Defendant has (a) renegotiated, settled, reduced, or otherwise altered the terms of at least one debt pursuant to a settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other such valid contractual agreement executed by the consumer, or (b) combined unsecured loans, debts, or obligations into one or more new loans, debts, or obligations; and the consumer has made at least one payment pursuant to that settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other valid contractual agreement between the consumer and the creditor or debt collector. To the extent that debts enrolled in a service are renegotiated, settled, reduced, combined, or otherwise altered individually, the fee or consideration either:

1. bears the same proportional relationship to the total fee for renegotiating, settling, reducing, combining, or altering the terms of the entire debt balance as the individual debt amount bears to the entire debt amount. The individual debt amount and the entire debt amount are those owed at the time the debt was enrolled in the service; or
2. is a percentage of the amount saved as a result of the renegotiation, settlement, reduction, combination, or alteration. The percentage charged cannot change from one individual debt to another. The amount saved is the difference between the amount owed at the time the debt was enrolled in the service and the amount actually paid to satisfy the debt.

II. PROHIBITION AGAINST CERTAIN REPRESENTATIONS RELATING TO DEBT RELIEF PROGRAMS OR SERVICES

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, Defendants' officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, in connection with the advertising, marketing, promoting, offering for sale, or selling of any debt relief program or service, are permanently restrained and enjoined from:

A. misrepresenting, or assisting others in misrepresenting, expressly or by implication:

1. the amount of money or the percentage of each outstanding debt that the consumer must accumulate before the provider of the debt relief service will initiate attempts with the consumer's creditors or debt collectors or make a bona fide offer to negotiate, settle, or modify the terms of the consumer's debt;
2. that consumers who purchase a debt relief program or service will be provided a financial account that only the consumer controls; and
3. that a debt relief service is offered or provided by a non-profit entity; and

B. representing, or assisting others in representing, expressly or by implication, the amount or percentage of money that consumers or any particular consumer who purchases Defendants' program or service typically saves, unless such representation:

1. is based on the amount of debt owed at the time of enrollment, rather than the amount at the time of settlement, and accounts for (i) increases in debt levels from creditor fees or interest charges that accrue during the period of the program, and (ii) fees the consumer pays to the provider;
2. includes the experiences of all of the provider's past consumers, including those who dropped out or otherwise failed to complete the program; and
3. includes all of the debts enrolled by each consumer in the program.

III. REQUIREMENTS FOR CONSUMER SAVINGS ACCOUNTS FOR DEBT RELIEF SERVICES

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, Defendants' officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, in connection with the advertising, marketing, promoting, offering for sale, or selling of any debt relief service, are permanently restrained and enjoined from requiring a consumer to make any payment under the terms of a debt relief service agreement, unless:

A. all such payments are made into an account at an insured financial institution;

B. the consumer owns the funds held in the account and is paid accrued interest on the account, if any;

C. the entity administering the account is not owned or controlled by, or in any way affiliated with, the debt relief service;

D. the entity administering the account does not give or accept any money or other compensation in exchange for referrals of business involving the debt relief service; and

E. the consumer may withdraw from the debt relief service at any time without penalty and, within seven (7) days of withdrawal, must receive all funds deposited into the account, other than funds paid to the consumer's creditors or debt collectors for negotiated settlement agreements, or earned by Defendants through completion of the following:

1. the debt relief service has renegotiated, settled, reduced, or otherwise altered the terms of at least one debt pursuant to a settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other such valid contractual agreement executed by the consumer;

2. the consumer has made at least one payment pursuant to that settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other valid contractual agreement between the consumer and the creditor or debt collector; and
3. to the extent that debts enrolled in a service are renegotiated, settled, reduced, or otherwise altered individually, the fee or consideration either:
 - a. bears the same proportional relationship to the total fee for renegotiating, settling, reducing, or altering the terms of the entire debt balance as the individual debt amount bears to the entire debt amount. The individual debt amount and the entire debt amount are those owed at the time the debt was enrolled in the service; or
 - b. is a percentage of the amount saved as a result of the renegotiation, settlement, reduction, or alteration. The percentage charged cannot change from one individual debt to another. The amount saved is the difference between the amount owed at the time the debt was enrolled in the service and the amount actually paid to satisfy the debt.

IV. PROHIBITION AGAINST MISREPRESENTATIONS RELATING TO FINANCIAL PRODUCTS OR SERVICES

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, Defendants' officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, in connection with the advertising, marketing, promoting, offering for sale, or selling of any financial product or service, are permanently restrained and enjoined from misrepresenting, or assisting others in misrepresenting, expressly or by implication:

A. the rate or percentage of consumers who complete, achieve success, cancel, or drop out of Defendants' offered product or service;

B. the amount of time in which consumers typically complete the Defendants' offered product or service;

C. the amount of time necessary for any particular consumer to achieve any represented results;

D. the amount or percentage of money that consumers who purchase Defendants' product or service typically save;

E. the amount or percentage of money that any particular consumer who purchases Defendants' product or service will likely save;

F. the timing, amount, and method that Defendants will use to collect their fees;

G. any material aspect of the nature or terms of any refund, cancellation, exchange, or repurchase policy, including the likelihood of a consumer obtaining a full or partial refund, or the circumstances in which a full or partial refund will be granted to the consumer;

H. that the experience represented in a testimonial of the product, service, plan, or program represents the person's actual experience resulting from the use of the product, service, plan, or program under the circumstances depicted in the advertisement;

I. the ability to improve or otherwise affect a consumer's credit record, credit history, credit rating, or ability to obtain credit, including that a consumer's credit record, credit history, credit rating, or ability to obtain credit can be improved by permanently removing current, accurate negative information from the consumer's credit record or history;

J. the effect of the service on a consumer's creditworthiness;

K. the effect of the service on collection efforts of the consumer's creditors or debt collectors; and

L. any other fact material to consumers concerning any financial product or service, such as: the total costs; any material restrictions, limitations, or conditions; or any material aspect of its performance, efficacy, nature, or central characteristics.

V. PROHIBITION AGAINST UNSUBSTANTIATED CLAIMS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, Defendants' officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, in connection with the sale of any product or service, are permanently restrained and enjoined from making any representation or assisting others in making any representation, expressly or by implication, about the benefits, performance, or efficacy of any product or service, unless the representation is non-misleading, and at the time such representation is made, Defendants possess and rely upon competent and reliable evidence that is sufficient in quality and quantity based on standards generally accepted in the relevant fields, when considered in light of the entire body of relevant and reliable evidence, to substantiate that the representation is true.

VI. MONETARY JUDGMENT

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Judgment in the amount of Nine Million Dollars ($9,000,000) is entered in favor of the Commission against the Individual Defendants and the Corporate Defendant, jointly and severally, as equitable monetary relief.

B. To partially satisfy the judgment specified in Subsection A. above, Defendants United Debt Counselors, LLC and David Melrose are ordered to pay to the Commission Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000), jointly or severally, in installments as follows:

1. Within seven days of entry of this Order, Defendants United Debt Counselors, LLC and David Melrose, jointly or severally, shall pay to the Commission an installment of One Hundred Ten Thousand Dollars ($110,000) (“first installment”), which, as these Defendants stipulate, their undersigned counsel holds in escrow for no purpose other than payment to the Commission.
2. Within 30 days of entry of this Order, Defendants United Debt Counselors, LLC and David Melrose, jointly or severally, shall pay to the Commission an installment of Seventy Eight Thousand Dollars ($78,000) (“second installment”).
3. Within 60 days of entry of this Order, Defendants United Debt Counselors, LLC and David Melrose, jointly or severally, shall pay to the Commission an additional installment of Seventy Eight Thousand Dollars ($78,000) (“third installment”).
4. Within 90 days of entry of this Order, Defendants United Debt Counselors, LLC and David Melrose, jointly or severally, shall pay to the Commission an additional installment of Seventy Eight Thousand Dollars ($78,000) (“fourth installment”).

6. Within 150 days of entry of this Order, Defendants United Debt Counselors, LLC and David Melrose, jointly or severally, shall pay to the Commission an additional installment of Seventy Eight Thousand Dollars ($78,000) (“sixth installment”).
7. All payments required by this Order shall be made by electronic funds transfers in accordance with the instructions previously provided by a representative of the Commission.
8. Upon the timely payment of all installments totaling Five Hundred Thousands Dollars ($500,000), the remainder of the judgment is suspended as to Defendants United Debt Counselors, LLC and David Melrose, subject to the Subsections below.
9. In the event of any default in paying the first installment or any subsequent installment, which default continues for ten (10) days beyond the due date of the installment, the entire remaining balance of the judgment set forth in Subection A. above, together with interest, as computed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961 from the entry date of this Order, shall immediately become due and payable.

C. To partially satisfy the judgment specified in Subsection A. above, Defendant Corinne Maples is ordered to pay to the Commission Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), which, as Defendant stipulates, her undersigned counsel holds in escrow for no purpose other than payment to the Commission. Such payment must be made within 7 days of entry of this Order by electronic fund transfer in accordance with instructions previously provided by a representative of the Commission. Upon such payment, the remainder of the judgment is suspended as to this defendant, subject to the Subsections below.

D. The judgment against Defendant Kirk Lanahan is suspended in its entirety as to this defendant, subject to the Subsections below.

E. The Commission's agreement to the suspension of part of the judgment is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Defendants' sworn financial statements and related documents (collectively, "financial representations") submitted to the Commission, namely:

1. the Financial Statement of Individual Defendant David Melrose signed on July 18, 2016, including the attachments, and the supplements received on or about October 4, 11, and 25, 2016;
2. the Financial Statement of Individual Defendant Corinne Maples signed on June 27, 2016, including the attachments;
3. the Financial Statement of Individual Defendant Kirk Lanahan signed on June 29, 2016, including the attachments;
4. the Financial Statement of Corporate Defendant United Debt Services, LLC, signed by Corinne Maples, Senior Vice President on June 27, 2016, including the attachments;

F. The suspension of the judgment will be lifted as to any Defendant if, upon motion by the Commission, the Court finds that said Defendant failed to disclose any material asset, materially misstated the value of any asset, or made any other material misstatement or omission in the financial representations identified above.

G. If the suspension of the judgment is lifted, the judgment becomes immediately due as to that Defendant in the amount specified in Subsection A. above (which the parties stipulate only for purposes of this Section represents the consumer injury alleged in the Complaint), less any payment previously made pursuant to this Section, plus interest computed from the date of entry of this Order.

VII. ADDITIONAL MONETARY PROVISIONS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Defendants relinquish dominion and all legal and equitable right, title, and interest in all assets transferred pursuant to this Order and may not seek the return of any assets.

B. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true, without further proof, in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the Commission, including in a proceeding to enforce its rights to any payment or monetary judgment pursuant to this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

C. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Commission pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

D. Defendants acknowledge that their Taxpayer Identification Numbers (Social Security Numbers or Employer Identification Numbers), which Defendants previously submitted to the Commission, may be used for collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. §7701.

E. All money paid to the Commission pursuant to this Order may be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its designee to be used for equitable relief, including consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. If a representative of the Commission decides that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money remains after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining money for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any money not used for such equitable relief is to be deposited to the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants have no right to challenge any actions the Commission or its representatives may take pursuant to this Subsection.

VIII. CONSUMER INFORMATION

If a representative of the Commission requests in writing any information related to redress, Defendants must provide it, in the form prescribed by the Commission, within 14 days; and

B. disclosing to third parties consumer information, including the name, address, telephone number, email address, social security number, other identifying information, or any data that enables access to a consumer's account (including a credit card, bank account, or other financial account), that any Defendant obtained prior to entry of this Order in connection with the marketing or sale of debt relief services.

Title 16: Commercial Practices

PART 429—RULE CONCERNING COOLING-OFF PERIOD FOR SALES MADE AT HOMES OR AT CERTAIN OTHER LOCATIONS

Contents

§429.0 Definitions.

§429.1 The Rule.

§429.2 Effect on State laws and municipal ordinances.

§429.3 Exemptions.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1-23, FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. 41-58.

§429.0 Definitions.

For the purposes of this part the following definitions shall apply:

(a) Door-to-Door Sale—A sale, lease, or rental of consumer goods or services in which the seller or his representative personally solicits the sale, including those in response to or following an invitation by the buyer, and the buyer's agreement or offer to purchase is made at a place other than the place of business of the seller (e.g., sales at the buyer's residence or at facilities rented on a temporary or short-term basis, such as hotel or motel rooms, convention centers, fairgrounds and restaurants, or sales at the buyer's workplace or in dormitory lounges), and which has a purchase price of $25 or more if the sale is made at the buyer's residence or a purchase price of $130 or more if the sale is made at locations other than the buyer's residence, whether under single or multiple contracts. The term door-to-door sale does not include a transaction:

(1) Made pursuant to prior negotiations in the course of a visit by the buyer to a retail business establishment having a fixed permanent location where the goods are exhibited or the services are offered for sale on a continuing basis; or

(2) In which the consumer is accorded the right of rescission by the provisions of the Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1635) or regulations issued pursuant thereto; or

(3) In which the buyer has initiated the contact and the goods or services are needed to meet a bona fide immediate personal emergency of the buyer, and the buyer furnishes the seller with a separate dated and signed personal statement in the buyer's handwriting describing the situation requiring immediate remedy and expressly acknowledging and waiving the right to cancel the sale within 3 business days; or

(4) Conducted and consummated entirely by mail or telephone; and without any other contact between the buyer and the seller or its representative prior to delivery of the goods or performance of the services; or

(5) In which the buyer has initiated the contact and specifically requested the seller to visit the buyer's home for the purpose of repairing or performing maintenance upon the buyer's personal property. If, in the course of such a visit, the seller sells the buyer the right to receive additional services or goods other than replacement parts necessarily used in performing the maintenance or in making the repairs, the sale of those additional goods or services would not fall within this exclusion; or

(6) Pertaining to the sale or rental of real property, to the sale of insurance, or to the sale of securities or commodities by a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(b) Consumer Goods or Services—Goods or services purchased, leased, or rented primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, including courses of instruction or training regardless of the purpose for which they are taken.

(c) Seller—Any person, partnership, corporation, or association engaged in the door-to-door sale of consumer goods or services.

(d) Place of Business—The main or permanent branch office or local address of a seller.

(e) Purchase Price—The total price paid or to be paid for the consumer goods or services, including all interest and service charges.

(f) Business Day—Any calendar day except Sunday or any federal holiday (e.g., New Year's Day, Presidents' Day, Martin Luther King's Birthday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veterans' Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day.)

§429.1 The Rule.

In connection with any door-to-door sale, it constitutes an unfair and deceptive act or practice for any seller to:

(a) Fail to furnish the buyer with a fully completed receipt or copy of any contract pertaining to such sale at the time of its execution, which is in the same language, e.g., Spanish, as that principally used in the oral sales presentation and which shows the date of the transaction and contains the name and address of the seller, and in immediate proximity to the space reserved in the contract for the signature of the buyer or on the front page of the receipt if a contract is not used and in bold face type of a minimum size of 10 points, a statement in substantially the following form:

“You, the buyer, may cancel this transaction at any time prior to midnight of the third business day after the date of this transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right.”

The seller may select the method of providing the buyer with the duplicate notice of cancellation form set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, provided however, that in the event of cancellation the buyer must be able to retain a complete copy of the contract or receipt. Furthermore, if both forms are not attached to the contract or receipt, the seller is required to alter the last sentence in the statement above to conform to the actual location of the forms.

(b) Fail to furnish each buyer, at the time the buyer signs the door-to-door sales contract or otherwise agrees to buy consumer goods or services from the seller, a completed form in duplicate, captioned either “NOTICE OF RIGHT TO CANCEL” or “NOTICE OF CANCELLATION,” which shall (where applicable) contain in ten point bold face type the following information and statements in the same language, e.g., Spanish, as that used in the contract.

Notice of Cancellation

[enter date of transaction]

(Date)

You may CANCEL this transaction, without any Penalty or Obligation, within THREE BUSINESS DAYS from the above date.

If you cancel, any property traded in, any payments made by you under the contract or sale, and any negotiable instrument executed by you will be returned within TEN BUSINESS DAYS following receipt by the seller of your cancellation notice, and any security interest arising out of the transaction will be cancelled.

If you cancel, you must make available to the seller at your residence, in substantially as good condition as when received, any goods delivered to you under this contract or sale, or you may, if you wish, comply with the instructions of the seller regarding the return shipment of the goods at the seller's expense and risk.

If you do make the goods available to the seller and the seller does not pick them up within 20 days of the date of your Notice of Cancellation, you may retain or dispose of the goods without any further obligation. If you fail to make the goods available to the seller, or if you agree to return the goods to the seller and fail to do so, then you remain liable for performance of all obligations under the contract.

To cancel this transaction, mail or deliver a signed and dated copy of this Cancellation Notice or any other written notice, or send a telegram, to [Name of seller], at [address of seller's place of business] NOT LATER THAN MIDNIGHT OF [date].

I HEREBY CANCEL THIS TRANSACTION.

(Buyer's signature)

(c) Fail, before furnishing copies of the "Notice of Cancellation" to the buyer, to complete both copies by entering the name of the seller, the address of the seller's place of business, the date of the transaction, and the date, not earlier than the third business day following the date of the transaction, by which the buyer may give notice of cancellation.

(d) Include in any door-to-door contract or receipt any confession of judgment or any waiver of any of the rights to which the buyer is entitled under this section including specifically the buyer's right to cancel the sale in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(e) Fail to inform each buyer orally, at the time the buyer signs the contract or purchases the goods or services, of the buyer's right to cancel.

(f) Misrepresent in any manner the buyer's right to cancel.

(g) Fail or refuse to honor any valid notice of cancellation by a buyer and within 10 business days after the receipt of such notice, to: (i) Refund all payments made under the contract or sale; (ii) return any goods or property traded in, in substantially as good condition as when received by the seller; (iii) cancel and return any negotiable instrument executed by the buyer in connection with the contract or sale and take any action necessary or appropriate to terminate promptly any security interest created in the transaction.

(h) Negotiate, transfer, sell, or assign any note or other evidence of indebtedness to a finance company or other third party prior to midnight of the fifth business day following the day the contract was signed or the goods or services were purchased.

(i) Fail, within 10 business days of receipt of the buyer's notice of cancellation, to notify the buyer whether the seller intends to repossess or to abandon any shipped or delivered goods.

[37 FR 22934, Oct. 26, 1972, as amended at 38 FR 30105, Nov. 1, 1973; 38 FR 31828, Nov. 19, 1973; 53 FR 45459, Nov. 10, 1988; 60 FR 54186, Oct. 20, 1995]

§429.2 Effect on State laws and municipal ordinances.

(a) The Commission is cognizant of the significant burden imposed upon door-to-door sellers by the various and often inconsistent State laws that provide the buyer the right to cancel a door-to-door sales transaction. However, it does not believe that this constitutes sufficient justification for preempting all of the provisions of such laws and the ordinances of the political subdivisions of the various States. The rulemaking record in this proceeding supports the view that the joint and coordinated efforts of both the Commission and State and local officials are required to insure that consumers who have purchased from a door-to-door seller something they do not want, do not need, or cannot afford, be accorded a unilateral right to rescind, without penalty, their agreements to purchase those goods or services.

(b) This part will not be construed to annul, or exempt any seller from complying with, the laws of any State or the ordinances of a political subdivision thereof that regulate door-to-door sales, except to the extent that such laws or ordinances, if they permit door-to-door selling, are directly inconsistent with the provisions of this part. Such laws or ordinances which do not accord the buyer, with respect to the particular transaction, a right to cancel a door-to-door sale that is substantially the same or greater than that provided in this part, which permit the imposition of any fee or penalty on the buyer for the exercise of such right, or which do not provide for giving the buyer a notice of the right to cancel the transaction in substantially the same form and manner provided for in this part, are among those which will be considered directly inconsistent.

[60 FR 54187, Oct. 20, 1995]

§429.3 Exemptions.

(a) The requirements of this part do not apply for sellers of automobiles, vans, trucks or other motor vehicles sold at auctions, tent sales or other temporary places of business, provided that the seller is a seller of vehicles with a permanent place of business.

(b) The requirements of this part do not apply for sellers of arts or crafts sold at fairs or similar places.
